VILLAGE HUMOR

Why do they call it “rush hour” when nobody is moving? (Gallagher?)

Why are they called apartments when they're all stuck together? (Gallagher)

Why do they call 'em 'buildings' when they're done building 'em? They ought to be called 'builts.' Or, 'crumblings.' I live in that crumbling over there. (Gallagher)

I wish there was a knob on the TV so you could turn up the intelligence. They got one marked “brightness”, but it doesn't work, does it? (Gallagher)

Ya know, God experimented with the other animals before he got around to us. You ladies oughtta thank him for creating the cow, and getting that udder idea out of his head! (Gallagher)

Why do they call that funny little statue a “bust” when it stops right before the part of the body that it's named after? (Gallagher)

Why does my cat always run to the door when the doorbell rings? It's almost never for him (Carlee)

IMPORTANT NOTICE FROM THE EDITOR OF VILLAGE NEWS

Submitted by Chris Carlee

Effective with this May 2023 issue of Village News, I am officially retiring as Editor. I have greatly enjoyed this volunteer position for the past five years. However, I have several trips planned in the near future both within and outside of the USA, and unfortunately the production of this newsletter does not fit in with those plans. For any questions going forward, please contact John Stover, President of the VOG Recreational Assn. at (517) 227-2615.
